UPCOMING EVENTS

Rabbi Feingold will be offering a 13-week Introduction to Judaism class on Thursday nights, from 7:30-8:45 p.m., beginning February 18. The class is free BHT members. There is a $75 tuition fee for non-members. A book purchase is required. Registrations are required no later than Sunday, 2/7. Please call Lois, in the temple office, to register.

It's not too early to start thinking about Purim – and coming up with costume ideas! This year, Erev Purim services will be preceded by a catered pizza dinner. Be sure to Save the date – Saturday, 2/27!

BHT and COMMUNITY ANNOUNCEMENTS

The submission deadline for the March-April edition of the Achshav is coming up soon! We welcome member and temple news and items of general interest. Please send your submission to Cheryl Secora Pearl (csecorap@perceptual.net). If you would like to contribute something, but need more time, please email or call Cheryl to arrange a different deadline.

BSBH (BHT's Hebrew and Religious School) is looking for volunteers to help teach Hot Topics courses beginning with Session Three on February 21. There are a total of nine (9) classes. If you, or someone you know, might be interested, please contact Education Director Megan Kuzminski at megan_1217@yahoo.com.

Attention all volunteers! Terri Thornton needs your help in reporting the impact our congregation has on our community. If you are a member of Beth Hillel and volunteer (serve on the board of a non-profit, are a docent at the museum, visit the sick, tutor children, help at the Shalom Center...anything that you volunteer for that helps our community) for an organization located anywhere between Lake County, IL and Milwaukee, WI, please let Terri know where you volunteer and how many hours you worked (per week or month) in 2009. The information will be compiled and submitted in grant applications, on behalf of BHT. We need to show how our congregation is an asset to our area communities.

Please send your info to Terri Thornton at TJTJ57@AOL.com today!

January 31, "A Jewish Night at the Museum" event at the Milwaukee Public Museum.
