

KRAFTY (Kenosha Racine Area Federation of Temple Youth)

Goal: KRAFTY board's goal is to excite Jewish youth at Beth Hillel Temple about Judaism, encourage them to become involved in KRAFTY, and to promote membership in NFTY on a regional level so that they may further define their Jewish identity.

Tasks:

- 1.) Make flyers and send them out to the appropriate age group for the specific event
- 2.) Encourage younger members to consider running for KRAFTY board
- 3.) Produce creative programs, ranging from religious and social programs, to performing mitzvot throughout the community that will appeal to many different people
- 4.) To be a representative of the youth to Beth Hillel Temple leaders
- 5.) To be a representative of Jewish youth to the Kenosha Area community

Roles of Board Members:

- To be present at board meetings
- Brainstorm and commit to ideas for programs
- Do background work for a program based on what is assigned or what their board position entails
- Attend KRAFTY programs
- Attend NFTY-NO regional events as representatives of KRAFTY
- Recruit new members for programs
- Serve as a representative of KRAFTY to the Temple in all possible ways

Why be a part of KRAFTY?

KRAFTY is a crucial element of Beth Hillel Temple. KRAFTY is an amazing opportunity for anything that all types of young Jewish adults would be looking for. It offers social, religious, and volunteer opportunities. For those who wish, there is also the chance to become a member of KRAFTY board and gain essential leadership skills. KRAFTY opens doors to the future in the Jewish community, such as NFTY, and offers an incredible Jewish foundation for teens.

Current KRAFTY Board Members:

Abby Backer, Melissa Sobin, Kayla Arbet, Justin Eisenberg, Phil Meyer, Ben Varhula, Kimberly Jozefiak, and advisor Amanda Steele
