

BETH HILLEL TEMPLE BOOK OF MEMORY

5786 - 2025

The Book of Memory is the tradition of Beth Hillel Temple to add meaning and comfort to our Yizkor Service.
Our dear ones are now a part of us.
May those here inscribed
guide and inspire us
as we carry on our own lives.

With deep appreciation
to our members past and present, their families, and our BHT Friends for their steadfast support

Yom Kippur Book of Memory

Rabbi's Message 5786

טוב שם משמך טוב ויום המזות מיום הילדו:

In the Jewish year, four times we gather for Yizkor, our memorial service: on Yom Kippur, Shemini Atzeret, the final day of Pesach, and the second day of Shavuot. Each of these moments comes at the culmination of a sacred season: Yom Kippur, the day when we seek forgiveness and draw closest to God; Shemini Atzeret, the festival that lingers at the end of Sukkot, when tradition teaches that God asks us to “tarry one more day” before departing; the last day of Pesach, when the memory of redemption and crossing into freedom is at its peak; and Shavuot, the anniversary of receiving Torah at Sinai.

These occasions come at turning points in the Jewish calendar, moments when we naturally reflect on our relationship to God, to our people’s story, and to those who came before us. The message is clear: remembrance is not separate from holiness, but part of it. Our encounters with God and community are enriched when we carry with us the legacies of those who shaped us.

To remember is not only to look back—it is also to bring our loved ones forward with us. Our sages taught that “the righteous are called alive even in their death” (Berakhot 18a), because their words, their deeds, and their love continue through those who carry them. When we encounter a familiar song, a scent, a holiday table, or even a simple phrase, memory can be so vivid that we feel their nearness. They are not gone from us; they remain within us, part of our story, part of our lives.

These past two years, our prayers of remembrance also reach beyond our personal circles. We hold in sacred memory the hostages taken into captivity, many of whom were never granted the chance to return home, to embrace their families once more. Their absence is borne not only by their families, but within the memory of the entire Jewish people. We carry them, too, in our prayers and in our grief.

In this season of holiness, may memory be a blessing, may love outlast loss, and may the presence of those who came before us continue to guide us on our journey.

in loving memory
of our dear ones
and recalls
and honors
their names*

What is the Book of Memory?

The pamphlet you hold in your hand, the Beth Hillel Temple Book of Memory, is the latest link in a venerable, old Jewish tradition that has helped our people recall and honor the dead for centuries.

Since medieval times, "Memorbuchen" were kept in Jewish archives throughout Europe and were often the only historical records of a particular community. Memorbuchen contained names of rabbis, communal leaders, records of persecutions, and lists of martyrs to be read at synagogue memorial (Yizkor) services. They often contained prayers in Hebrew and in the vernacular as well.

Our Beth Hillel Book of Memory serves these same purposes. It is an archival record of our community and an enhancement of our Yizkor worship experience. Along with the names In Loving Remembrance of those who have died in the past year are found the names of deceased rabbis and members who died while serving in the Armed Forces of the United States. Those are followed by the names of those inscribed on our Memorial Tablets, and the names of the departed that our members have submitted.

On Yom Kippur, the Book of Memory helps us to contemplate the memory of those who have guided us as individuals and as a community to this day. This booklet can guide us after Yom Kippur as well. At home, use it any time – to draw inspiration and courage from the past and to contemplate the meaning of life and death.

IN THE SERVICE OF OUR COUNTRY

"They are not dead, our sons who fell in glory.
Who gave their lives for Freedom and for Truth,
We shall grow old, but never their great story.
Never their gallant youth."

Sherburn Bear, Louis Kadwit
Alan Donald Rosenberg, Marvin Rosenblum, Edmund Shaffron

*In a virtual springtime set apart, their memory forever green shall grow.
In some bright secret meadow of the heart, where never falls the snow.*

Prayer for Those Who Perished by War

Eternal God, Source of peace, we come before You in memory of those whose lives were cut short by the violence of war.

We live in an age of remarkable progress—humanity has reached the depths of the seas and the farthest heavens, we have unlocked secrets of science and medicine, and nations work together across oceans and borders. Yet, on the most essential level, we have not yet learned to resolve our deepest conflicts without bloodshed. Still too often, the weapons of war are chosen over the words of peace.

We remember the soldiers and civilians alike—those who fell in battle, those who perished from hunger, displacement, or devastation. We hold in prayer the families who mourn their absence, who live with loss that cannot be mended.

We pray, O God, for a time when nations and leaders will recognize that true strength is found not in conquest but in compromise, not in destruction but in understanding. We pray for the courage to raise our voices for peace, and for the wisdom to teach future generations that human dignity is preserved not through domination, but through dialogue.

May the memory of those who died in war inspire us to pursue a better way. May their lives call us to the sacred work of building a world where swords are beaten into plowshares, where no one learns war anymore, and where every human being can live in safety and peace.

Amen.

The Yellen Children

WE REMEMBER THEM

*In the rising of the sun and in its going down, we remember them.
In the blowing of the wind and in the chill of winter, we remember them.
On the opening of buds and in the rebirth of spring, we remember them.
In the blueness of sky and in the warmth of summer, we remember them.
In the rustling of leaves and in the beauty of autumn, we remember them.
In the beginning of the year and when it ends, we remember them.
When we have joys we yearn to share, we remember them.
So long as we live, they too shall live, for they are now a part of us,
As we remember them.*

—Rabbi Jack Reimer and Rabbi Sylvan Kamens

YEISH KOKAVIM

THERE ARE STARS up above,
so far away we only see their light
long, long after the star itself is gone.
And so it is with people that we loved—
their memories keep shining ever brightly
though their time with us is done.
But the stars that light up the darkest night,
these are the lights that guide us.
As we live our days, these are the ways we remember.

—Hanah Senesh

The recitation of the Kaddish on the Yahrzeit of the death of a dear one is part of our Jewish tradition. It helps us to remember and honor those of Blessed Memory and keep them in our hearts. Please let this book be a handy reference during the year as you light a Yahrzeit candle or visit the cemetery.

Psalm 23

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures;
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul;
He guideth me in the paths for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of
the shadow of death,

I will fear no evil.

For Thou art with me;

Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies.

Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup
runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all
the days of my life;

And I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

A Special Prayer for Those Not Saying Yizkor for Parents

The following prayer may be recited by worshippers who are blessed by having their parents still living while others are reciting Yizkor.

Almighty God, while those who have lost their parents and their dear loved ones call to mind those who have gone to their eternal rest, I at this solemn moment raise my eyes unto You, the Giver of Life, and from a grateful heart thank You for Your mercies in having preserved the life of my beloved father and mother.

May it be Your will, Adonai my God and the God of my ancestors, to bless them with health and strength, so that they may be with me for many years to come. Bless them even as they have blessed me, and guard them even as they have guarded me.

In return for all their affection and the sacrifices which they have made for me, may I bring them joy and lighten their cares. May it be my privilege to help them in every way that lies within my power; may I learn to understand and recognize the duty I owe unto them, that I may never have cause to reproach myself when it is too late.

Shield my home from all sorrow. May peace and harmony and Your spirit ever reign within its walls. Keep me true to You and to all with whom I come in contact so that I may do Your will with a perfect heart, my Creator in Heaven.

Amen.
